

Nature – home – housing: Negotiating urban space and its development

Preliminary programme / 31 October 2016

10:30 Arrival (formal issues, coffee)

10:45 Introduction (welcome address)

11:00 – 12:30 The city in green (Block 1)

Michail Ilchenko

“Green” Utopia of the Uralmash: Institutional Effects and Symbolic Meaning

Diana Dushkova, Dagmar Haase, Annegret Haase

Urban Green Space in Transition: Historical parks and Soviet heritage in Arkhangelsk, Russia

Beata J. Gawryszewska, Anna Wilczyńska, Maciej Łepkowski, Ryszard Nejman

Right to the wild: Green urban wasteland in context of urban planning

Adrienne Csizmady, Sandra Treija, Zsuzsanna Fácányi

Participatory Design Processes for Developing Green Areas of Large-Scale Housing: Case studies in Budapest and Riga

DISCUSSION (discussant: tba)

12:30 – 13:15 LUNCH

13:15 – 14:45 The green in the city (Block 2)

Jakub Záhora

On Trees, Hills and Occupation: The Politics of Nature in Israeli Settlements in the West Bank

Hikoyat Salimova

Dachas as a renewed housing solution in post-Soviet Tashkent

Elena Ivanova

The Urban Gardening as Implication or Retreat?

Alexandra Bitusikova

Community gardening as a way of changing urban space and urban people: The case of Banská Bystrica, Slovakia

DISCUSSION (discussant: tba)

14:45 – 15:00 COFFEE

15:00 – 15:30 Discussing the green city/in the city (Block 3)

Round-table discussion (article drafts, journal special issue, possible cooperation(s), ...)

15:30 Farewell address